

MEYENDORFF IS INVESTIGATING

Left for Portland Last Night Where He Will Continue Work.

UNCOVERING THE FRAUDS.

Special Agent of General Land Office of Government—Has Had Most Remarkable Career.

M. A. Meyendorff, who was the principal witness before the interstate commerce commission yesterday, left last night for Portland. He is a special agent of the general land office of the government, and his work in uncovering fraud in Wyoming has made his testimony here notable.

This is not the first visit of Mr. Meyendorff to Salt Lake. He lectured here 11 years ago on his experiences as a Siberian prisoner, and the story of his travels is one of many and varied adventures.

He is a graduate of Michigan university in engineering, and has been in the government service for nearly 30 years, first as superintendent of construction on government buildings at Helena, Mont., then as assayer in a Helena office, and finally as a special agent of the land office. He is now in the powerful influence of Senator Warren and Clark, whose names were involved, has been used against him. But he has remained at work on the unearthing of frauds, and his affidavit filed yesterday with the commission shows the results.

In Oregon and Washington he is assisting Francis J. Heney to uncover the land frauds, and as Heney began in the San Francisco office, the bulk of this work will fall on Meyendorff. He is 56 years of age and was born in Poland. As a boy he fought in a Polish uprising and when captured was sentenced to life imprisonment in Siberia. While serving the sentence, word reached a half-brother in America that this fate had been meted out to one of his kin. The half brother, Julian Allen, had just escaped an American army service, and when captured in Siberia. OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN BY IMPURE BLOOD

A great many people have an idea that old sores exist merely because of a diseased condition of the flesh, and that they will heal if the place is treated with salves, powders, plasters and other external applications, but in spite of all such treatment the place refuses to heal. Whenever a sore or ulcer does not heal readily the blood is at fault; this vital fluid is filled with impurities and poisons which are constantly being discharged into the place, feeding it with noxious matter, which makes it impossible for the sore to heal. Old sores may be the result of an inherited blood taint, or the effects of a long spell of sickness, or again the circulation may be contaminated with the collections of refuse matter which the different members have failed to expel through the channels of nature. Whatever the cause the blood becomes steeped in poison and a cut, bruise, scratch or other wound often develops into a sore, fed and kept up by these impurities, causing it to eat deeper into the surrounding tissue, inflaming, festering and causing pain. External applications can only keep the sore clean; they cannot cure it. S. S. S. cures Old Sores by going to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and poisons and purifying and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, the place scars over and is soon permanently healed. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

ning. As early as 10 o'clock this morning the new rink on Richards street was crowded with enthusiasts who seemed absolutely oblivious to anything but the clatter of the little rollers. A feature of this fascinating sport at the Auditorium is the exhibition of Tyler and Berton, the graceful trick roller skaters. Their fancy tricks are attracting large crowds. Another feature which will undoubtedly prove popular is the "Tuesday nights" for the Commercial club. Members of the club and their friends will have this night each week throughout the season.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Yesterday the marriage of Miss Stella Daynes and K. Christensen took place, the ceremony being performed in the temple in the morning, and a large reception taking place at night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Daynes. The parlor was beautifully decorated in white and green, with carnations, chrysanthemums, palms and ferns, the table having a centerpiece of pink carnations, and streamers of pink tulle being brought from the chandeliers to the corners. The bride's gown was of white Liberty chiffon over taffeta and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Assisting the bride were Miss Marquette Daynes, and Miss J. J. Daynes, Sr., and Junior and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Daynes. Presiding in the dining room was Mrs. Joseph Sharp and assisting in serving were Miss Marquette Daynes, and Miss Claire Christensen, Miss Vilette Eardley, Miss Eva Snow, Miss Mae Taylor, Miss Ida Eldridge, Miss Janet Murphy, Miss Vera Rich, Miss Reta Pyper and Miss Hattie Whitney. An orchestra rendered delightful music during the evening. After a trip to the coat Mr. and Mrs. Christensen will be at home at 21 Kensington flats.

Another large affair of yesterday was the dance at the University club, under the management of J. E. Caine, P. L. Williams, Jr., and Dr. J. F.

LIBEL SUIT WILL STIR UP INTEREST

Filed by A. A. Anderson. Formerly of Yellowstone Forest Reserve.

WAS REMOVED FROM OFFICE.

Many Protests Were Made Against Him and He Was Threatened—Attacked by a Newspaper.

(Special to the "News.") Meeteetse, Wyo., Nov. 29.—A. A. Anderson, former superintendent of the Yellowstone forest reserve, who was removed last spring by President Roosevelt at the end of one of the bitterest fights ever waged against a public officer in this state, is evidently preparing to get even with his enemies. Col. Anderson has for years maintained a lodge in the mountains to the west of Meeteetse. He is a painter of no mean ability, spending his summers in the mountains and his winters at the clubs of the well set in New York City. A few years ago he was appointed superintendent of the forest reserve, and residents of this section immediately set up a howl, claiming he was a non-resident and not qualified to administer the affairs of his office. It was also charged that he was the head of a syndicate of New York club men who proposed to hold the forest reserves for themselves as a hunting ground, and for a time it did look as though Supt. Anderson was working unnecessary hardships upon the sheep and cattle men in order that the wild game of the section might be protected.

Protest after protest was filed with the president, and many mass meetings were held by the indignant ranchers. Anderson was threatened, but all to no purpose. In the meantime Anderson purchased a ranch and entered upon the raising of blooded cattle, and he has today one of the finest ranches on the Greybull river. He became a citizen, but the ranchers kept on protesting, until finally Anderson resigned.

SUIT FOR $10,000.

He immediately entered suit against the Meeteetse News for alleged libel, and this case will be heard at Sheridan next month. Anderson says for $10,000 damages.

In order that the criticisms would not all be one way, Anderson two years ago purchased the Meeteetse Standard, and this paper has been conducting his campaign. A few days ago Mr. Anderson purchased the Basin Republican for the purpose, it is alleged, of having a paper at the county seat that would print the Anderson side of the forest reserve and other questions in which the owner has been or may at any time become involved.

The outcome of the libel suit of Anderson against the Meeteetse News will be watched with interest. Anderson is wealthy and will push his suit through the highest courts in the land.

BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS, 1906

THIS IS THE TIME OF THE YEAR WHEN THE BOTHERSOME QUESTION OF A SUITABLE CHRISTMAS GIFT COMES UP.
